John Forrest (forrestj) (Thu, 14 Nov 2019 18:05:39 GMT):Please revise the proposal and syllabi to establish a clear distinction between the expectations of the undergraduate and graduate student in these courses. The learning objectives and course requirements should reflect the more advanced level of expectations applied to graduate students. From the Paired Courses Policy "Course descriptions and syllabi must be explicit about how the experience of graduate and undergraduate students is to differ. The syllabi must clearly establish additional requirements for graduate students that might include (but not be limited to) significant research papers, oral presentations of research, and/or demonstration of more sophisticated laboratory or studio skills than those required of students in the paired undergraduate course." https://www.csus.edu/academic-affairs/_internal/_documents/paired-courses-policy.pdf A&L Curriculum Committee Member - John Forrest

Robin Fisher (rfisher) (Thu, 14 Nov 2019 18:09:45 GMT):Rollback: Dear Anne, please see requested revisions from John Forrest on behalf of the Committee.
