Provide reasons for the program suspension.

The college stopped offering this program several years ago, and the courses that comprise this program are no longer offered.

Indicate any programmatic or fiscal impact suspension of the program will have on other academic units' programs.

None, as these were offered through the College of Continuing Education.

Describe the consultation that has occurred with affected units.

No other units are affected as this program resides completely within the College of Business.

Explain provisions to ensure currently enrollment students have a reasonable opportunity to complete the program.

There are no currently enrolled students.

Indicate what resources will be freed up or shifted to other programs as the result of the program suspension.

The program has not been offered for several years, so discontinuation of this program will have no impact on resources.

Certificate in Advanced Business Studies (CABS)

Catalog Description:

Program Description

The Certificate of Advanced Business Studies program is designed to give students a solid foundation in business that will provide them with the skills and competencies necessary to be successful administrators and managers. The program is intended for post-baccalaureate students whose degrees are in non-business fields. The courses of the certificate program will also satisfy the Foundation Requirements of the graduate degree programs in the College of Business Administration. The Certificate is offered by the College of Business Administration and is administered by the Sacramento State College of Continuing Education.

Program Requirements: (If new courses are being created as part of a new program, it will be useful to propose courses first.)
