Justification for course proposal:
In consultation with the CHHS Dean's office, we are requesting to change the lecture classification from CS#02 to CS#15 Technical Activities and Laboratories (K-factor – 1.5 WTU per unit), which is more reflective of the nature of the course. Although the brief description of CS#15 does not list Nursing, there has been considerable change in Nursing courses over the years, and the teaching of Nursing is no longer straight lecture. This course more closely fits the technical activities description as it would for speech correction or foreign languages, thus prompting this change. The connection of the instructor of record of this course to its corresponding clinical sections is also in line with a laboratory course. The instructor of record of this course is responsible for the coordination and management of 8 associated clinical sections and numerous part-time temporary faculty.
We are not proposing any changes to the course such as objectives and assessments.

Course Description: (Not to exceed 80 words and language should conform to catalog copy.)
