Justification for course proposal:

We are proposing two separate changes.

1. Faculty in the program would like to change the title of the course to reflect recent advances in the field.
2. We no longer need a 'C/D' designation because the content has been combined; there will no longer be a separate lecture (C) and discussion (D). The units for this course will total 2, because the prior lecture and discussion were one unit each.

Course Description: (Not to exceed 80 words and language should conform to catalog copy.)

This course continues a critical analysis of the purposes and processes of public schooling, including Critical Multiculturalism, Racial/Social Justice pedagogy, and Anti-Bias education. Students will examine the sociopolitical intersection of public schools and society, educational theories, philosophies, notions of culture, community, and educational practice through self-examination of dispositions related to gender, sexuality, race, social class, language, religion/spirituality and ability.
