Yes

Justification for course proposal:

As the Director of Choral Activities, I seek to better identify this ensemble by submitting a name change from the generic "Concert Choir" to "University Chorale." 142C has always had two sections, but those two sections have always been completely different choirs. As the premiere (LPE) Sac State choir, it is time that "University Chorale" has its own unique identity.

Course Description: (Not to exceed 80 words and language should conform to catalog copy.)

The University Chorale is a large performing ensemble open to students and experienced volunteers, pending a formal audition. On-campus and off-campus performances as announced each semester. This highly select ensemble performs music from historic periods as well as the most contemporary. This ensemble is often called upon to represent the University in various capacities, including recruitment and performance tours.
