Justification for course proposal:

Individual instruction in singing, conducting, or playing specific instruments (described in the music curriculum as 'applied music') is part of music degrees in all music baccalaureate and post-baccalaureate programs. We propose new courses MUSC 221 and MUSC 222 as the applied music courses for students at the Performer's Certificate level.

In the current catalogue, the Master of Music degree and Performer's Certificate use the same course numbers for applied music courses. This creates problems for students who have earned a Master of Music degree at Sac State and then wish to pursue the Performer's Certificate: Course repetition limits prevent them from receiving credit for their applied music courses in the Performance Certificate program.

Adding MUSC 221/222 will let us identify the post-baccalaureate applied music courses required for students in our Performer's Certificate program, distinguishing them from the applied music courses required for students in the Master of Music degree (MUSC 217/218, 219/220). This will allow Performance Certificate students to enroll in applied study using the new course numbers.

Reviewer Comments:

Ian Harvey (iharvey) (Wed, 21 Apr 2021 18:38:41 GMT): Dear Chantal, This is Ian Harvey on behalf of the ALS Curriculum Committee. Your course proposals for MUSC 221 and 222 have been approved pending revisions as follow. Justifications for MUSC 221 and 222 The committee suggested minor adjustments to clarify that the courses are being proposed in response to a specific edict coming down from the Chancellor's office, and that "Applied Music" refers to individual instruction. Please correct the Syllabus on MUSC 221 so that the course description matches that presented in the course proposal. All the best, Ian

Robin Fisher (rfisher) (Wed, 21 Apr 2021 18:53:08 GMT): Rollback: Dear Anna, please see requested edits from Prof. Harvey on behalf of the committee. Let me know if you have any questions. Thank you, Robin.

Anna Presler (apresler) (Mon, 11 Oct 2021 04:16:14 GMT): Thanks, Ian. We have corrected the course description for the MUSC 221 syllabus, and edited the justification to try to clarify 'applied study' and the need to change these courses because of limits on the number of times they can be taken for credit (rather than because of other specific direction from the Chancellor's office.)

Alyson Buckman (abuckman) (Tue, 19 Oct 2021 16:29:54 GMT): After reviewing the proposal, I see this already has been approved. I will move it on.
