Justification for course proposal:

This course replaces and clarifies the Deaf 165: Special Topics in Deaf Studies offerings by establishing ASL-English Translation as a separate and distinct course offering which students may take for credit, either as a required course or in substitution for transferred or waived coursework. Whereas in the past, these offerings were offered under a single heading, Deaf 165, these courses are now presented as standalone choices.

This course specifically focuses on global sign language and Deaf communities around the globe.

Course Description: (Not to exceed 80 words and language should conform to catalog copy.)

This course explores the phenomenon of International Sign, centering around three themes: (1) Sociolinguistics – How languages emerge and change; (2) International Sign – What it is, what it isn't, and how meaning is constructed; and (3) Deaf Communities around the globe.
