No, final exam does not require a room (Last Class)

This course complies with the credit hour policy:
Yes

Justification for course proposal:
This course is being revised as part of a set of curricular changes taking place for the BFA in Interior Architecture. These changes are responding to a need to clarify curricular objectives as well as modify program requirements in order to better facilitate transfer students. Please see the BFA in Interior Architecture Form B for additional information.

This course is part of an overhaul of the interior architecture curriculum. Course changed from 3 units to 2 units

Course Description: (Not to exceed 80 words and language should conform to catalog copy.)
Introductory computer-aided design (CAD) course. Focuses on using AutoCAD and SketchUp software for orthographic drawing development and three-dimensional models of buildings. Emphasis on CAD vocabulary, digital drawing/modeling conventions, and techniques. Provides practice constructing digital two-dimensional orthographic drawings and three-dimensional models of architectural projects.
