Minor

Briefly describe the program proposal (new or change) and provide a justification:

The minor provides a comprehensive understanding of the divided nation of Korea, including art, history, politics, language, culture, society, religion, and philosophy. We created one additional course on Korea last year, ASIA 137 (North Korean Politics and Society) as an optional elective for the minor and would like to add it to the minor so students will have a better understanding of the contrasting political situation between the two Koreas, and its importance of regional and global security.

University Learning GoalsUndergraduate Learning Goals:

Competence in the disciplines
Knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world

Program Learning OutcomesProgram Learning Outcomes*Learning Outcome

1. Compare and contrast Korea with other nations in the broader Asia region.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of the following areas of Korea: 1) art, 2) history, 3) politics, 4) culture, language, and society, and 5) philosophy and religion.
3. Integrate and apply an interdisciplinary knowledge of theories and concepts from the humanities and social sciences to identify factors that influence Korea.
4. Critically evaluate social, cultural, and political issues facing Korea.

Will this program be required as part of a teaching credential program, a single subject, or multiple subject waiver program (e.g., Liberal Studies, Biology) or other school personnel preparation program (e.g., School of Nursing)?

No

Catalog Description:

Units required for Minor: 18, twelve of which must be in upper division

Students will be introduced to the broader region through two pan-Asia courses before selecting Korea-specific electives to fit their own interest. Study of the Korean language is highly encouraged.
