Call for Nominations: Distinguished Faculty Award and Lecture

(Formerly the John C. Livingston Distinguished Faculty Lecture)

Dear Colleagues,

The Faculty Senate is pleased to announce the call for nominations for the faculty member who will deliver the 2025-2026 Distinguished Faculty Award and Lecture. This lecture is the oldest continuous faculty award on the Sacramento State campus.

The Distinguished Faculty Award and Lecture honors an exceptional faculty member who, throughout their career, has demonstrated consistent and engaging collegiality, a strong commitment to students, intellectual leadership, and a sustained, unique contribution to the campus community through teaching, scholarship, and university service.

The recipient will receive a $1,500 honorarium and deliver a lecture on a topic of their choosing that will be of interest to the broader university community on Thursday, February 26, 2026, 3:00 pm, Pacific Suite, University Union.

Nominations

- Any member of the university community may nominate (self-nominations are accepted.)
- Nominees should be faculty members who, over the course of their careers at Sacramento State, have exemplified dedication to the University and its students through the qualities and achievements outlined above.

Nomination Packet: The nomination letter (or letters) should include:

- A detailed description of the nominee's qualifications
- A copy of the nominee's curriculum vitae

Deadline: Friday, December 19, by 12:00 noon. Submit nomination packets to: senate.awards@csus.edu

Questions: Contact Kathy Honeychurch, Senate Analyst at kathy.honeychurch@csus.edu.

Regards,

Carolyn Gibbs, Chair
Faculty Senate
