

Livingston Faculty Lecture Recipients

Year	Name	Unit	Lecture Title
58-59	John C Livingston	Government	Democracy and the Manipulation of Consent
59-60	Robert Else	Art	Art and An American Ideal
60-61	John Linnell	Philosophy	Facts and Values (a preliminary and tentative examination of some of the fundamental metaphysical and epistemological considerations involved in axiological judgments with special application to some recent judicial decisions on leasing, letting, and licensing)
61-62	Norman Rudy	CBA	The Student and the Reform of the Colleges
62-63	Thomas Billings	Education	The Nerve of Failure
63-64	Gerard Larson	Theatre Arts	The Comic Condition
64-65	George Takmakoff	History	The Soviet Dilemma in the Sixties
65-66	Victor Comerchero	English	The Underground Man
66-67	Robert Good	Psychology	Drop-outs, Push-outs, and Cop-outs--Students and Schools"
67-68	No Award made
68-69	Marc Tool	Economics	A View of Relevance
69-70	Rollo Darby	Biological Sciences	Is Concern for our Environment to be our Final Fad?
70-71	Martin Rogers	Psychology	The Evolution of Community
85-86	Albert Cook	Electrical and Electronic Engineering	Attacking Disability Byte by Byte
86-87	Angus Wright	Environmental Studies	Poisoned Development: Pesticides and Social Change in Mexico and Central America
87-88	Leland L. Nichols	Communication Studies	Democracy and the Manipulation of Consent--Three Decades Later
88-89	Robert L. Curry, Jr.	Economics	Prospects for Africa's Development
89-90	Robert Metcalf	Biological Sciences	Cooking with the Sun: A CSUS Contribution to the Global Environment
90-91	Perry D. Weddle	Philosophy	A Case for Historical Thinking
91-92	Betty Ch'maj	Humanities	We Who Believe in Freedom...Multicultural America and the PC Debate
92-93	David Covin	Government and Ethnic Studies	The African Race: The Politics of an Idea in the United States"
93-94	John F. Brackmann, Jr.	Psychology prof emeritus	Never Mind
94-95	John W. Conner	Anthropology	The Cultural, Ecological Antecedents of Chinese and Japanese Modernization Endeavors in the Nineteenth Century
95-96	William A. Dorman	Journalism	Mass Media and the American Conversation: Money, Culture and the Marketplace of Ideas
96-97	Juanita C. Barrena	Biological Sciences	The Promise of the CSU -- Dead or Alive?
97-98	Erwin Kelly	Economics emeritus	Taking Stock: Fifty Down, Fifty to Go-CSUS, the First Hundred Years
98-99	Otis Lilbourne Scott	Ethnic Studies and Government	Duboisian Insight: Problematics of the Color Line Then and Now
99-00	Scott Farrand	Mathematics	Opportunities and Responsibilities for the Professoriate in K-12 Education
00-01	Joseph E. Marrow	Psychology and Behavior Analysis	Applied Behavior Analysis and the Treatment of Autism Spectrum Disorder
01-02	John F. Henry	Economics	Property and the Limits to Democracy
02-03	Dan R. Decious	Chemistry	Making Use of the CSUS "Web" A Small Town Retention Model
03-04	Valerie Wheeler	Anthropology	The Art of Farming: Ethnography Enlightened by Photography
04-05	Craig Kelley	Marketing	Structuring Business Education to Meet the Needs of Business Practitioners
05-06	Alexandre Kimenyi	Linguistics, African Languages and Ethnic Studies	The Cliché Paradox
06-07	William Dorman	Journalism and Government	A Teaching Life: Values Then and Now
07-08	Cristy Jensen	Public Policy and Administration	Faculty as Academic Leaders: Our Students are Counting On Us (Whether They Know It Or Not)
08-09	Jackie Donath	Humanities and Religious Studies	Aphorisms for the Academy
09-10	Roberto Pomo	Theatre and Dance	In the Eye of the Storm: Preparing for California's Higher Education Restructuring Paradigms
10-11	Jeffery Lustig	Government	The University Besieged, Local Harms and Larger Costs

Year	Name	Unit	Lecture Title
11-12	Thomas Krabacher	Geography	The Public University as Public Good
12-13	Rita Cameron-Wedding	Ethnic Studies and Women's Studies	A Challenge to Colorblindness: Racial Inequality in the 21st Century
13-14	Susan L. Holl	Mechanical Engineering	Engineering Education: Thoughtful Design of a Quality University Curriculum
14-15	Mark Stoner	Communication Studies	Are two heads really better than one? Communication, Collaboration, and Coalitions of Minds
15-16	Christine Miller	Communication Studies	Higher Education Innovation Meets the Mash-Up
16-17	Edward L. Lascher, Jr.	Public Policy and Administration	Curbing the Inclination toward Populist Reform (And Why You Should Appreciate the Faculty Senate)
17-18	Jennifer Lundmark	Biological Sciences	Students as partners: Cultivating leadership and lifelong learning.
18-19	Tony Sheppard	Recreation, Parks and Tourism Administration	Jaws, Netflix, and Retention
19-20	Celeste Roseberry-McKibbin	Communication Sciences and Disorders	Increasing the Literacy Skills of At-risk Children in Poverty for a Brighter Future: Practical Strategies
20-21	Lecture not offered.
21-22	Lecture not offered.
22-23	Lecture not offered.
24-25	Ernest Uwazie	Criminal Justice	Do No [further] Harm: Thinking and Doing Restorative Justice