

Compliance Committee

The Compliance Committee is an interdisciplinary group that provides a forum for the efficient dissemination and discussion of program-related information and strategy to and among key stakeholders. The Compliance Committee at Sacramento State will take charge of the University's compliance and ethics program and will be the driving force behind its initiatives, with the help of the compliance office and compliance partners.

Faculty Representative

- Vacant