

Graduate Council

The Council serves the Dean of Graduate Studies in an advisory, though not policy making, capacity on matters regarding the recommendation and implementation of principles, policies, and procedures affecting graduate and post-baccalaureate education at California State University, Sacramento. The Council also provides a forum for communication among coordinators of graduate and post-baccalaureate programs at departmental, college, or university wide levels.

Faculty Representative

(A member of the Graduate Studies Policies Committee)

- Samantha Blackburn, Nursing (HHS) – Term: Fall 2021 – Spring 2022