FOR NEW COURSE PROPOSALS OR SUBSTANTIVE CHANGES ONLY:

Description of the Expected Learning Outcomes: Describe outcomes using the following format: "Students will be able to: 1), 2), etc." See the example at http://www.csus.edu/acaf/example.htm

Students will be able to:

- Read critically the course text and other assigned materials.
- Develop writing strategies for the types of writing assignments given in the course.
- Apply test-taking strategies when preparing for and taking course exams.
- Use time-management strategies in planning how to study and complete assignments for course.
- Use computer-based instructional materials designed to supplement course.
- Develop critical thinking skills in discipline.

Attach a list of the required/recommended course readings and activities [Note: it is understood that these are updated and modified as needed by the instructor(s).] This attachment should be forwarded only to your Dean's office, not Academic Affairs.

Assessment Strategies: A description of the assessment strategies (e.g., portfolios, examinations, performances, pre-and post-tests, conferences with students, student papers) which will be used by the instructor to determine the extent to which students have achieved the learning outcomes noted above:

Some of the ways outcomes are assessed include weekly practice tests, homework review, problem or concept worksheets, midterm debriefing, lecture summaries and conferences with students. The grade for this supplemental instruction course is based on attendance and participation. The effectiveness of the course will be assessed based on student outcomes in the FACS 10 course to which it is attached. Data will be collected comparing the final FACS 10 grades (GPA) of students who take the adjunct/SI class with the grades of students who don’t. Additionally, data on the D, F or W rate of adjunct/SI students versus non-adjunct/SI students will also be collected and reported.
