Conference Agenda	Attach an agenda if you attended a conference, seminar, event, training or meeting as supporting documentation of travel dates and provided meals.	Verify travel dates with provided agenda. Also, ensure justification is provided for any meals claimed by the employee that were provided as part of the conference registration before approving.	Review attached agenda and justification provided for any meals claimed by the employee that were provided as part of the conference registration.
Receipts Required	Attach receipts for other expenses $75 or more (car rental, parking, registration, etc.).	Verify and approve itemized receipts for any expense of $75 or more.	Review attached itemized receipts for any expense of $75 or more.
Incidental Expenses	List actual amount of incidental expenses up to $7 per day (bellhop tips, maid tips, etc.)	Verify and approve incidental amounts claimed.	Review incidental amounts claimed.
Travel Advances	If you had a travel advance - Unused Funds must be returned to the Cashier's Office (attach receipt to TEC) and show zero balance. If entire Advance used , then deduct the amount on your TEC and show the net reimbursement due to you.	Verify all advances, prepayments (ProCard, BTA, etc.) are accounted for correctly on the TEC before approving.	Review all advances, prepayments (ProCard, BTA, etc.) for deduction on the TEC.
Driving instead of Flying	If you decide to drive instead of fly, documentation demonstrating the cost of a regular coach fare at the time of your travel dates must be attached to your TEC. You cannot claim more than this amount. Include your vehicle plate number when claiming mileage. The current mileage rate is on the TEC.	Before approval, verify the mileage amount is not more than a regular coach fare for the timeframe of the traveler's trip.	Review mileage amount and regular coach fare comparison attached to TEC is the lower amount listed on the claim.
Personal Expenses	Do not claim personal expenses (hotel movies, gift shop purchases, etc.) or personal travel before/after your official business travel or personal travel between official business trips on your TEC. Transportation costs must be less than or equal to what costs would have been if only traveled for official business. You must attach documentation at time of booking travel for rate comparison.	Verify and approve that personal expenses have not been included for reimbursement including personal travel days before/after official business travel or between official business trips. Transportation costs during personal days are reimbursable if no additional cost to the University (shuttle to airport, airfare, etc.)	Review to ensure personal expenses have not been included for reimbursement including personal travel days before/after official business travel or between official business trips. Transportation costs during personal days are reimbursable if no additional cost to the University (shuttle to airport, airfare, etc.)
Dept. to be reimbursed by Chancellor's Office	When your travel will be reimbursed by the Chancellor's Office (CO), make sure you check the box marked "Dept. to be reimbursed by Chancellor's Office". Department will receive a reimbursement (credit) via a CO Cash Posting Order (CPO).	Ensure box is checked if your Department has preapproval for reimbursement from the CO. This is the only way to receive reimbursement of your Departmental Funds.	If box is checked, copy of TEC is routed to Accounting Services for processing of the reimbursement via CPO.

Signatures	Sign your claim certifying you received authorization to travel on official business, you spent the amounts listed, and that you will not seek duplicate reimbursement.	Make sure you have the authority to sign travel expense claims by reviewing your departments delegation of authority approver list. If you are not on the list, complete a delegation of authority form and send the completed form to IRT.	Verify approving official's authority to sign travel expense claims on the delegation of authority department inquire screen in CFS. If approver does not have authority, return the TEC to the department for proper signature.
Exceptions	For exceptions (Meals >$55 per day, didn't eat provided conference meal, etc.), ask your approving official to obtain the VP's signature.	Vice President of the Traveler's Division must approve exceptions. If the Traveler is a VP, then the President must approve the exception. If denied, the costs will be the Traveler's responsibility and not reimbursed.	Review for signature of Division VP or President was obtained for approval of exceptions. This is not verified on the Delegation of authority department inquiry screen in CFS.
