Announcement - New Learning Toolkits

More than six million steps were taken during the Sac State Steps Together program in October 2020. Led by Kinesiology faculty Jennifer Park, DPT, a group of employees met virtually on Fridays at noon to learn to walk, talk about their adventures, and in the date range box at the top, select All. This will show you all of the trainings you've completed in CSU Learn as well as the history of most of your training completions from previous years.

New Employee Experience

Fourth year math professor Dana Li was recently selected as a Promising Educator by the American Mathematical Association of Two-Year Colleges (AMATYC). She received the award for her exceptional teaching and mentorship of students. Dana has been an influential and effective teacher, providing her students with the skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in the field of mathematics.

Fire-side Chat with the Chancellor

On Friday, November 6, President Zingg will host a fire-side chat style question-and-answer session with one of our outstanding campus leaders. The event will focus on a variety of topics, including the impact of the pandemic on higher education, the future of our campus, and how we can support each other in these challenging times. This is an opportunity to connect with the Chancellor and ask any questions you may have.

Looking Forward to 2021

We are excited to share our new learning and development offerings for the new year. Our goal is to provide you with engaging and informative programs that support your professional growth and development. We are committed to delivering high-quality training that is relevant to your work and personal needs. Check out our website for a full schedule of upcoming events.
