

Dear

Congratulations! You have been provisionally admitted to California State University, Sacramento for the Fall 2015 term.

You are receiving early notification of your admission decision because you have been identified as a high achieving student based on your grade point average.

This year, over thirty thousand students applied to be admitted for the Fall 2015 term. You were selected from a talented and highly qualified pool of applicants. Should you choose to attend Sacramento State, we are confident that you will make important contributions to our campus community during your college years and beyond.

We invite you to visit the Sacramento State campus over the next few weeks; please schedule a campus tour soon at csus.edu/admissions/campus_tours. Our friendly and knowledgeable tour guides are willing to answer any questions you may have about Sacramento State and the admissions process.

On the reverse of this letter, you will find the Fall 2015 Admission Checklist. This checklist contains critical dates and deadlines you should become familiar with. It is important that you review this list and adhere to these deadlines, as failure to meet any of the deadlines will result in your application for admission being withdrawn from consideration. You should also visit the "I Have Been Admitted" section of our web site for Fall 2015 at csus.edu/admissions for the latest information about next steps for admitted students.

You will be sent additional information regarding mandatory New Student Orientation in the spring. You may also visit their web site at csus.edu/orientation for more information.

We are pleased that you have chosen Sacramento State and look forward to seeing you in Fall 2015.

Best Regards,

Emiliano Diaz, Director
Admissions & Outreach
