Faculty Diversity Pipeline Program application deadline is today

The University is looking for applicants for a new Faculty Diversity Pipeline Program, which will help prepare qualified lecturers from traditionally underrepresented groups in their pursuit of tenure-track positions. This summer 2018 program will provide participants with the skills, tools, and experience needed to be competitive for tenure-track positions. A stipend will be provided upon program completion. The program runs 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. the following Fridays: June 8, June 22, July 13, July 27 and Aug. 3.

Eligibility includes terminal degree or current enrollment in a terminal degree in the discipline, a minimum of two semesters teaching experience at Sacramento State and an interest in pursuing a tenure-track position. View more details and submit applications at csus.peopleadmin.com no later than today, April 23, for first consideration. Please direct questions to the Office of Faculty Advancement at faculty.advancement@csus.edu.

Summer Session registration is open

Registration for Sacramento State Summer Session is open. Short sessions allow students the flexibility to complete graduation requirements and advance toward degree goals while pursuing other interests over the summer. With this year's new reduced campus fees and Pell Grant summer cash, Summer Session is more affordable. More information and registration is available at csus.edu/summer.

Pop-up boutique Tuesday will promote sustainable fashion

The Student Fashion Association (SFA) will run a pop-up boutique to promote sustainable fashion from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, April 24, in the University Union, Cypress Room. The boutique will consist of garments and accessory pieces picked out by SFA members from secondhand stores and pieces upcycled by fashion students' addition of trendy details and other design elements to recycled items. The event seeks to promote sustainable fashion to the Sac State community and to provide a platform to express creativity and highlight student designers, local Sacramento designers, and local boutiques to further promote "buying locally," which also is part of sustainable fashion. Direct questions to Dr. Dong Shen at dshen@csus.edu.

End-of-year deadline for Reprographics and Mail Services

It's not too soon to submit your print and mail projects to be charged to this fiscal year. You may submit Reprographics work orders for any job at any time, but the criteria for billing jobs is based on when the job is completed. Any job completed on or before Thursday, May 31, will be billed to the current fiscal year. Any job completed after May 31 will be billed to the 2018-19 fiscal year. There is no interruption in service or in fulfilling your printing needs, just a dividing line for billing purposes.

Business cards can take up to two weeks to fulfill. Therefore, business card orders should be received by Thursday, May 17, to meet the billing deadline. If you have an urgent need for business cards after the deadline, please contact us and we will do our best to accommodate you.

If you are unsure how long your project will take to complete, now is the time to contact Reprographics at 278-6198 or email reprographics@csus.edu. We will be happy to assess your project needs and provide an estimate.

ECS Senior Design Showcase, 'Order of the Engineer' ceremony both May 11

The College of Engineering and Computer Science (ECS) hosts its college-wide Senior Design Showcase on Friday, May 11. Presentations start at 9 a.m. and are scheduled throughout the day on campus. Design project product demonstrations and presentations by senior students in civil engineering, computer engineering, computer science, construction management, electrical and electronic engineering, and mechanical engineering will be open to the public for members of the campus and the professional community. More information, including a schedule of times, locations, and formats by program, can be found at ecs.csus.edu.

As part of the showcase, ECS also hosts its Order of the Engineer Ring Induction Ceremony at noon May 11 in the University Union, Hinde Auditorium. The ceremony is a public vow to practice integrity, fairness, and respect in all aspects of engineering practice. The ring signifies a promise to uphold the standards and qualities of the engineering profession. Participants in the ceremony must be engineering students within one year of graduation or practicing engineers. More information can be found at ecs.csus.edu. Stingers Up!

Three free immigration clinics remaining

The Dreamer Resource Center, in partnership local nonprofits, invites undocumented students, students from mixed-status families, and the campus community to attend our ongoing free immigration clinic. This service is intended to help students navigate their legal questions during a time of quickly changing immigration laws and policies. Attorneys are available from noon to 5 p.m. Fridays for in-person consultations. Consultations are on a first-come, first-served basis. Walk-ins are accepted but priority will be given to established appointments. All advice will be from non-CSU employees, and CSU cannot make any representations about the substance of the advice given.

To schedule an appointment, please email saseep-sa10@csus.edu or visit the Dreamer Resource Center office in River Front 1022.

Capital Storytelling Live event is Thursday

Join us from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday, April 26, at Verge Center for the Arts, 625 S. St., for the Capital Storytelling Live event. People will take the stage to share real-life stories. We will present six storytellers at this first-time event. Each presenter will share a five- to 15-minute story. The event mimics other live storytelling events such as The Moth, but is Sacramento's very own. Come out and enjoy an evening of listening, laughing, crying, and meeting new people. Entrance is $7 for the public, $3 for Sacramento State students with valid OneCard.

For more info, email Lisa Cantrell at lisa.cantrell@csus.edu.

'Myth, Memory & Magic' art exhibit featuring Raphael Delgado

The University Union Gallery is pleased to present "Myth, Memory & Magic," a solo exhibition featuring new artwork by Raphael Delgado. The exhibit opens today and runs through Thursday, May 17. A special opening reception will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, April 26. Admission is free.

Inspired by the timelessness, sense of imagination, stories, and colors of Egyptian, Greek, Mayan, African and Roman, Delgado combines his inspiration with his memories, personal interests, his perspective on beauty, and his fears onto canvas. The Union Gallery is open 10:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, with special extended hours from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesdays and Thursdays. For more information, call the University Union Information Desk at 278-6997.

Human Resources

Summer hours begin May 29

This summer, in an effort to conserve energy, we will continue the practice of a modified work schedule with normal business hours for the campus of 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. with a 30-minute lunch break. These hours are effective Tuesday, May 29, and continue through Friday, Aug. 17. As always, authorized supervisors may modify individual work schedules to address special situations.

As in past summers, this schedule enables the University to realize substantial budget savings by reducing energy consumption during the late afternoon hours when energy demand is highest. We hope this change also permits many of our employees to get the most from the longer summer days.

If you have questions or concerns that cannot be answered by your supervisor or manager, please contact Chela Cholula, employee and labor relations manager in the Office of Human Resources, at 278-6779 or cholula@csus.edu. Thank you.

Catastrophic leave donation

Sacramento State employees may voluntarily donate up to a maximum of 40 hours of sick or vacation leave credits in one-hour increments each fiscal year to another employee who has been deemed eligible for catastrophic leave. Bargaining Units 1, 10 and 11 may donate only up to 16 hours per fiscal year. If you are interested in donating time, the form can be obtained at csus.edu/hr/forms.html#disability, by visiting the Benefits Office in Del Norte Hall, Suite 3004, or by calling 278-3522.

The following employees have been approved to receive donations through the Catastrophic Leave Donation Program:

- Alexis Chavez, SHS-Clinic
- Alexandria Jungkeit, CTR for Collaborative Policy
- Shannon McDonald, Custodial Services
