Announcing the 2018 Faculty Diversity Pipeline participants

The Office of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion and the Office of Faculty Advancement are pleased to announce the individuals selected as participants of the 2018 Faculty Diversity Pipeline Program. The Pipeline Program, a pilot program funded by a generous grant from the CSU Chancellor's Office, is designed to provide lecturers from underrepresented groups with the skills, tools, and experiences, as well as confidence, needed to be more competitive in tenure-track searches in the CSU. Additionally, the program offers opportunities for participants to establish a professional network and provides coaching from experienced faculty and administrators.

The inaugural Pipeline cohort: Marnie Binder, Lourd Bowardi-Shomar, Christine Castagna, Sohnya Castorena, Daniel Herrera, Desire Kindarara, Elizabeth Mukibi, Semarhy Quinones-Soto, Karine Schaal, and Ayanna Yonemura.

University Staff Assembly committee nominations deadline extended to June 22

University Staff Assembly is seeking nominations for election/appointment to several campus committees that have openings for staff representation. More information about these committees and positions may be found at csus.edu/usa/election.

If you or someone you know is interested in serving on one of these committees, please submit the following to usa@csus.edu by 5 p.m. Friday, June 22.

- Name
- Phone extension
- Department
- Email address
- A brief explanation of why that person should sit on the committee or why you would like to sit on the committee

If you are nominating someone, please obtain that person's permission and that of their supervisor and HEERA designee before submitting the name. If you are nominating yourself, please obtain permission from your supervisor and HEERA designee. Permission via email is acceptable. Elections will commence once all nominees have been confirmed.

The voice of the staff on campus is invaluable. Please consider serving the staff and the University.
