Welcome to our new senior director for Risk Management Services

It is with great pleasure that we introduce the newest member to the Administration and Business Affairs family, Gary Rosenblum, senior director for Risk Management Services/CRO.

The new senior director has many years of experience in all facets of risk management, as well as broad knowledge and experience in environmental health and safety. He also is very familiar with regulatory compliance, occupational/industrial safety, and emergency management, as well as chemical safety programs, which are critical for the University. His experience in developing and publicizing safety programs of public entities will prove beneficial in bringing significant changes to Risk Management at Sacramento State.

Please join us in welcoming Gary Rosenblum!

Free summer Koru Mindfulness classes available for staff, faculty, students

Student Health and Counseling Services is offering free Koru Mindfulness sessions in July and August. Beyond simply decreasing your stress, this course offers approaches and skills to help you find more satisfaction in your daily life. The course, consisting of four classes, is designed to help you learn mindfulness through the practice of specific skills that calm and focus your mind, and through the practice of meditation. If you are feeling pressured and stressed, or just interested in learning a new skill that can enrich your life, these classes are for you.

- Session 1 (faculty/staff only): 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Mondays, July 17, 24, 31, and Aug. 7.
- Session 2 (open to all): 1 to 2:15 p.m. Thursdays, July 20 and 27, and Aug. 3 and 10.

Register at sacstateshcs.wufoo.com. For more information, contact Jason Cataldo at jason.cataldo@csus.edu.

Student Research Center seeks 2017-18 faculty associate

The Student Research Center at Sacramento State is hiring one faculty associate for the 2017-18 academic year. The scope of work will focus either on student issues related to research or on faculty issues related to research with students. To apply:

csus.edu/studentresearchcenter/for-faculty.

The center, which was founded last fall with support from Research Affairs and Academic Affairs, exists to broaden opportunities for students and faculty to collaborate on authentic research, scholarship, and creative activities. The center provides support through innovative programming, including workshops and dissemination events. It also serves as an informational hub for student research by coordinating across preexisting programs that support student research.

Football program seeks student videographers for 2017 season

The Hornet football program is seeking students to film practices and games beginning Tuesday, Aug. 1. The position is voluntary. This would be a tremendous opportunity for anyone who is interested in sports video or hoping to break into collegiate athletics. Students' primary duties would be to film practices and games, assist with card drops, and occasionally help with input and transfer of video into our computer system.

Interested students need to be reliable and punctual. August camp practice times vary, but most will run from 9 to 11 a.m., with walk-throughs around 5 p.m., Monday through Saturday. During the regular season, practices generally run from 8 to 10 a.m. Tuesday through Thursday, and walk-throughs generally are at 6 p.m.

The position begins immediately. Those interested may contact Justin Lantz at (304) 851-2733 or justin.lantz@csus.edu.
