Join fellow suicide loss survivors in your community on Saturday

Student Health and Counseling Services hosts an International Survivors of Suicide Loss Day on Saturday, Nov. 17, at The WELL, Terrace Suite. Each year on International Survivors of Suicide Loss Day, those who have lost a loved one to suicide gather at events all over the world to share stories, find comfort and hope in the knowledge they are not alone, and gain valuable insights about healing after a loss. For more information about Survivors of Suicide Loss Day, visit afsp.org/SurvivorDay. To register for the event, please visit afsp.org/chapter/afsp-greater-sacramento.

Save the date: Giving Tuesday will support our students' basic needs

Have you experienced food, housing, or other basic needs insecurities? More than 47 percent of our students face these challenges at some point in their college career, interfering with their ability to learn and thrive. This Giving Tuesday, Nov. 27, fundraising efforts will focus on supporting the Associated Students Inc. (ASI) Food Pantry, Student Emergency Housing Fund and Student Emergency Grant Fund. These programs help students meet their basic needs, allowing them to focus on their education, graduation and how they will impact the community. Give back this holiday season - to our students, to our future. You also can make a holiday gift in honor of a loved one, and they will receive a holiday card of gratitude. Learn more at csus.edu/givingtuesday.

Volunteers still needed for River City Food Bank's 'Carry a Thankful Heart'

Providing support for more than 40 years, River City Food Bank (RCFB) is Sacramento's oldest continuously operating food bank. The week of Thanksgiving is one of its busiest as it provides food to clients for this holiday. To help RCFB, the Community Engagement Center needs volunteers to distribute food Monday, Nov. 19, and Tuesday Nov. 20. Specifically, we need 10-15 volunteers to work 11 a.m.-4 p.m. each day. Thank you to those who already have registered. We do, however, need more help for the afternoon shifts. Please register at csus.edu/cec by 5 p.m. today, Nov. 13.

David Andersen-Rodgers to deliver SSIS/AI-Qazzaz Dean’s Lecture on Wednesday

Professor David Andersen-Rodgers, Department of Political Science, gives the Fall 2018 SSIS/AI-Qazzaz Dean’s Lecture at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 14, in the University Union, Forest Suite (second floor). His topic is “Human Security is Dead! Long Live Human Security! Norms, Rights, and Human Protection in an Age of Rage.” Human security is the idea that the security of individuals and communities should receive priority in policymaking decisions. Displacement, conflict-induced famine, global climate change and a rise in nativist movements has challenged the once emerging human security norm. Professor Andersen-Rodgers will discuss themes from his recently published book (co-authored with Kerry F. Crawford) Human Security: Theory and Action. Light refreshments will be served.

Testing Center services during finals week

The Testing Center would like to remind faculty that the deadline for students registered with the Office of Services to Students with Disabilities to schedule their final exams at the Testing Center is Wednesday, Nov. 21. Students are required to let instructors know when they have scheduled their exams. We also will offer two makeup test sessions, for a fee of $6 to the student, during finals week at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 12, and noon Friday, Dec. 14. Students must call us or visit our office ahead of time to schedule an appointment.

We also would like to encourage faculty to pick up exams taken during finals week (Dec. 10-14) directly from our office to guarantee they will receive the exam(s) before grades are due. We are in Library South, Lower Level, room 14. Please contact us at 278-6296 or testingcenter@csus.edu with any questions during our normal business hours of 7:30 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

OWP Water Seminar Series resumes Friday

Join the Office of Water Programs at noon Friday, Nov. 16, in Library 11 for the next in a series of seminars bringing together the Sac State community and water professionals from the Sacramento region to educate and collaborate on broad topics of water use, management and protection in California. This month, Ms. Melinda Frost-Hurzel, P.E., coordinator, Cosumnes Coalition; and Mr. Gary Bardini, planning director, Sacramento Area Flood Control Agency (SAFCA), present "Responding to Climate Change with Multi-Benefit Projects." Their presentation is based on the emerging strategy of managed aquifer recharge (Flood-MAR) from the Department of Water Resources. SAFCA and the Cosumnes Coalition are collaborating with stakeholders and researchers to explore a Flood-MAR multi-benefit project that would increase regional flood protection while benefiting water supply and Cosumnes River ecosystems. Food will be provided for the first 20-25 attendees starting at 11:30 a.m. Seating is limited; RSVP at owp.csus.edu/water-seminars.
