

1619 – The Birth of a Nation

Remembering 400 Years of Slavery and Its Legacy

Thursday November 21st | 3pm-5pm

University Union, Orchard Suite III

Free Event – Open to all campus and surrounding communities

*Memories are the foundations of culture
Come and keep the memory alive*

Schedule at a Glance:

- Oration & Candle Ceremony
- The African-American Experience in the American Shores
- The Case for Reparations – A Debate
- Spirituals & Songs:
"Moses", by Paul Robeson | "Strange Fruit", by Nina Simone
"Amazing Grace", by John McDermott | "Glory", by John Legend
- Video & PP Presentation
- Reception & Light Refreshments

916.278.6282 | capcr@csus.edu

www.csus.edu/center/african-peace-conflict-resolution

SACRAMENTO
STATE

Redefine the Possible