

Learn about Congress by working in Congress!

Expenses paid
while you earn academic credits.

No matter what your major, if you're a student leader with a strong academic record and a commitment to public service, apply now for a Panetta Congressional Internship.

Each fall semester, the Panetta Institute for Public Policy, located on the beautiful Monterey Peninsula, provides selected California students an intensive two-week training course on the workings of the U.S. Congress, then sends them to Washington, expenses paid, for 11 weeks of service to a California member of the U.S. House of Representatives. While in Washington, you'll attend special seminars with government leaders, journalists and policy experts. And with the submission of an experiential journal and a research paper, you can earn academic credits at your school.

For more about the program and how to apply, go to PanettaInstitute.org.

The Panetta Intern Program

Open to undergraduate juniors and seniors at all CSU campuses, plus Santa Clara University, Dominican University of California and Saint Mary's College. Apply through the office of your university president. Your travel to and from Washington, along with housing expenses and a stipend, will be covered by the program.