All incoming first-year FCP students will be placed into the Full Circle Project learning communities. The learning community consists of a cohort of FCP students enrolled in specific courses together with the goal to enhance students’ educational, social, and personal learning experiences through shared learning.

Fall Learning Community Schedule
- Ethnic Studies 21: First Year Seminar
- Ethnic Studies 14: Introduction to Asian American Studies

Spring Learning Community Schedule
- Ethnic Studies 22: Contemporary Issues and Social Change

Benefits of the FCP Learning Communities
- Build strong relationships with peers and instructors (community building)
- Enhance one’s identity
- Engage in fruitful conversations and co-curricular activities
- Receive mentorship through peer and staff support
- Develop leadership skills