

13th Annual CRC-CPPE Fall Ethics Symposium

Monday, November 5, 2018

8:30am – 4:00pm

California State University, Sacramento

The University Union -

The Redwood Room

6000 J Street, Sacramento, CA 95819

Tuesday, November 6, 2018

8:00am – 3:00pm

Cosumnes River College

The Recital Hall

8401 Center Pkwy,

Sacramento, CA 95823

In what ways can innovation and entrepreneurship contribute to the social good? How have innovation and entrepreneurship been vehicles for drastic improvements in living standards and human well-being? What stands in the way of these benefits extending to more and more people?

FEATURING

JULIA NORGAARD
Pepperdine University

ALEXI M. MARCOUX
Creighton University

KARL SMITH
Niskanen Center

LISA KNEPPER
Institute for Justice

GREGORY PRICE
Morehouse College

STEVEN TELES
Johns Hopkins University

For more information, contact Professor Kyle Swan, kyle.swan@csus.edu

This event is free and open to the general public.

INSTITUTE FOR HUMANE STUDIES
AT GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY