

Center on Race, Immigration, and Social Justice

Empowerment Scholarship

Application Deadline: Sunday, November 14, 2021

Award Disbursement: Spring 2022

To Apply go to: Student Center>Financial Aid Links> Apply for Scholarships OR via the Scholarship website by clicking HERE

Criteria/Requirements: Undergraduate or Graduate (classified) student at Sacramento State, minimum 3.0 GPA, Full-time enrollment at time of application and award, demonstrate financial need (working class, first generation student, historically unrepresented minority), demonstrate civic service and social justice in the on and/or off campus community, provide one or two references, and submit with application a 1-2 page essay outlining how student experiences have motivated to civic service and to social justice.

CRISJ
CENTER ON RACE,
IMMIGRATION
& SOCIAL JUSTICE
AT SAC STATE

CRISJ's mission

Work collaboratively with faculty, students, staff and diverse community members to provide a platform of opportunities that seek to transform the educational culture and create a more inclusive and welcoming climate for underserved minority students and communities through active engagement in research, advocacy, and awareness of issues, concerns and concepts in race, ethnicity, immigration studies, and social justice. Accordingly, the CRISJ Empowerment scholarship recognizes students who exemplify this mission in their academic and community engagement.

Contact Information: crisj@csus.edu

SACRAMENTO STATE