

SACRAMENTO STATE

Center on Race, Immigration & Social Justice

Farmworker Migrant Housing in California and the Limits of Citizenship and Education

Tuesday, November 14, 2023 | Cottonwood Suite | University Union

6:00pm - 7:20pm - Film Screening of "Como Vivimos (How we live)"

Presented by: Aggie Ebrahimi Bazaz, Filmmaker

Each year, hundreds of US citizens in California are displaced and Mexican-American youth miss months of school. Learn more in this documentary film about living at the edges of citizenship and engage in conversation with filmmaker.

7:30pm - 8:30pm - Panel: Alumni, Sac State students and farmworker's rights activists

- Dr. Joaquin Arambula, California State Assembly Member
- Dr. Ann Lopez, Director of Center for Farmworker Families
- Luis Magaña, Organizacion de Trabajadores Agricolas de California
- Lauren Ornelas, Founder/Director, Food Empowerment Project
- Jose Modesto, Sacramento State Alumnus
- CAMP Students, Sacramento State

Scan QR to Register

PIZZA & REFRESHMENTS | FREE EVENT

Contact: crisj@csus.edu

Request accommodations one week prior to event