Communication Studies/Journalism Related Work Experience ComS/Jour 194 General Guidelines

- ☐ ComS/Jour 194 CANNOT be used as an upper division elective in your major. These units can only be used for the total units required (120) toward graduation.
- ☐ You MUST be of junior or senior status in order to enroll in ComS/Jour 194.
- ☐ You MUST be employed in a Communication or Journalism position within the discipline. Examples include, but are not limited to, working in the following types of positions: as a public relations professional, as a writer for a newspaper or magazine, as a communication director in a for-profit or non-profit organization, or as a marketing professional at a radio or television station.
- ☐ You CANNOT receive credit for working in the following types of positions: as a wait person in a restaurant, as a receptionist in an organization, as a bank teller.
- ☐ You may receive a maximum of 6 units for work experience. Use the following guidelines to determine the number of units:
  - Working 10-20 hours per week = 3 units
  - Working 20-40 hours per week = 6 units
- ☐ Complete and return ComS/Jour 194 application to Professor Robert Humphrey (MND 50113) or in main office (MND 5014).
- ☐ You must obtain permission to enroll in ComS 194 or Jour 194 from Professor Robert Humphrey by the second week of the semester.
- ☐ You must obtain permission from your supervisor to receive credit for your communication/journalism related work experience, as indicated by his/her signature on the application form.
- ☐ Complete the required writing assignments and turn them in at the designated due dates.
- ☐ Failure to complete the writing requirements and submit the supervisor's report will result in an incomplete. You will have one year to complete the requirements; otherwise you will receive "no credit" for the course.
- ☐ You must have your supervisor complete the enclosed evaluation form, which MUST be turned in with the second writing assignment during the 15th week of the semester. Failure to do so will result in a grade of incomplete.
