II. Analytic Essay

I. Contact Information

We would like to understand how you analyze communication problems and craft arguments. To demonstrate these abilities, please craft a short Analytic Essay (no more than two pages, single or double spaced) in response to one of the prompts available on our program website. There is no one right answer. We want to see you develop an argument, make a case for your position, discuss possible counterarguments, and demonstrate your writing and analytic abilities. Please use scholarly sources to support your claims and make sure to clearly identify which prompt you are addressing.
