

Elizabeth Shattuck Resource Fund Application

The Elizabeth Shattuck Resource Fund is a philanthropic fund for students majoring in History who face financial or other barriers to completing their education. The Fund, at the discretion of the department, will purchase textbooks, school supplies and other academic resources required within the History department for both research and school.

To apply for funding, please fill out this form and return it to Mrs. Vicenza Weeks, the Department's Budget Analyst, at moscariello@csus.edu.

Name: _____ Email: _____

Student ID #: _____ Phone: _____

Major: _____ Request for fall or spring semester: _____

Please briefly describe the reason for your request: _____

Books/supplies requested (if you would like to request all the books for a particular course, please simply list the course & section number):
