

Presented by the Department of Humanities and Religious Studies

The Shape of Power:

STORIES OF RACE AND AMERICAN SCULPTURE

Dr. Karen Lemmey, The Lucy S. Rhame Curator of Sculpture at the Smithsonian American Art Museum, presents a lecture on this groundbreaking exhibition. Explore how artists across generations have transformed diverse materials into powerful social commentary, creating essential frameworks for understanding today's urgent conversations about race, identity, and justice in America. After the lecture, Jennifer Wagelie, PhD, from Sac State's Office of Inclusive Excellence, will engage Dr. Lemmey in a conversation about art as a vital tool for navigating our challenging times.

THURSDAY, APRIL 10
4:30 - 6:00 PM
MENDOCINO 1003

For accommodations,
scan above

For exhibition info,
scan above

A FOTA Event Sponsored by the College of Arts and Letters