O viridissima virga

Hail! O greenest branch that went forth in the windy gusts of the saints' discernment.
When the time came for you to blossom on your branches,
"Hail! Hail!" was said to you, because the heat of the sun produced sweat
like the fragrance of balsam on you.
For in you a beautiful flower bloomed, which gave scent
to all the spices which were dry.
And they all appeared in full freshness.
Whence the heavens poured dew over the grass
and the whole earth was made happy
since its womb produced grain
and since the birds of the sky had nests on it.
From there food for humans was made,
and the great joy of banqueters.
Whence, o sweet Virgin, no joy is lacking in you.
All these things Eve scorned. But now let there be praise to the Most High.

Ergen Deda

The old bachelor, red-faced old man,
like this and like that, (nonsense syllables)
wearing his peasant hat sideways,
like this and like that, etc.
tipped up and down,
He went to the village,
and joined the circle dance,
to dance next to the maidens,
All the maidens ran away,
only the youngest one stayed,
the youngest one, Angelina.

Forgotten

Let it be forgotten, as a flower is forgotten,
Forgotten as a fire that once was singing gold,
Let it be forgotten for ever and ever,
Time is a kind friend, he will make us old.

If anyone asks, say it was forgotten
 Long and long ago,
 As a flower, as a fire, as a hushed footfall
 In a long forgotten snow.

In Late Sun

In late sun, the river and hills are beautiful,
 The spring breeze bears the fragrance of flowers and grass.
 The mud has thawed, and swallows fly around,
 On the warm sand, mandarin ducks are sleeping.

Breathe In Hope

Maya Jackson's text for Breathe in Hope began as two Facebook posts responding to the violent deaths of Philando Castile and Alton Sterling. Reading Maya's words, I was drawn to her call for action and reached out for Maya's permission to set her words to music. When confronted with tragedy, we may instinctively search for hope and healing. In the face of violent injustice, though, maybe the hope we seek can only be found when we recognize our own accountability and ask what actions we can take to create lasting change.

Gloria from Mass No. 2 in G Major

Glory to God in the highest.
 And on earth peace to all those of good will.
 We praise thee. We bless thee.
 We worship thee. We glorify thee.
 We give thanks to thee
 According to thy great glory.
 Lord God, Heavenly King,
 God the Father almighty.
 Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son.
 Lord God, Lamb of God,
 Son of the Father.
 Thou who takest away the sins of the world,
 Have mercy upon us.
 Thou who takest away the sins of the world,
 Receive our prayer.

For Thou alone art holy.
 Thou alone art the Lord.
 Thou alone art the most high.
 With the Holy Spirit
 in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Five Hebrew Love Songs

1. Temuná (A Picture)

A picture is engraved in my heart;
 Moving between light and darkness:
 A sort of silence envelopes your body,
 And your hair falls upon your face just so.

2. Kalá kallá (Light bride)

Light bride
 She is all mine,
 And lightly
 She will kiss me!
