Praised by critics as “a pianist who is truly passionate, sensitive, and musical ... an extremely polished, expressive, and vibrant pianist,” Young Kim, a Steinway Artist, has performed internationally as a soloist in recitals and with orchestras, in addition to appearing numerous times as a chamber musician. A native of South Korea, Kim has performed in major concert venues in Korea including the Seoul Arts Center. In Russia, she has appeared as soloist with the Saint Petersburg State Capella Symphony Orchestra, performing Beethoven’s “Emperor” Concerto to great acclaim. Since moving to the Capital District of NY in 2000, she has appeared as a soloist with Schenectady Symphony Orchestra and Glens Falls Symphony Orchestra several times and has performed solos and chamber music actively in the area.

Dr. Kim has been frequently invited to present lectures, recitals, and piano master classes in colleges and universities in Asia, Europe and in the US. Most recently, she was invited to perform and present piano master classes at the University of Szeged in Hungary, University of Seoul, Yamaha Hall, and Kookmin University in Seoul, Korea. In October 2019, Dr. Kim was inducted into the Steinway & Sons Teacher Hall of Fame, a prestigious designation recognizing the work of the most committed and passionate piano educators in the country. This was the very first year the award was given, and she was one of 43 teachers selected. Further highlighting her excellence as an educator, she was the recipient of the 2016 Thomas A. Manion Distinguished Faculty Award at the College of Saint Rose. This award is presented to a faculty member in recognition of excellence in teaching, outstanding professional accomplishment, and concern for the students.

Young Kim holds a Doctor of Musical Arts from the University of Minnesota (tutelage under Lydia Artymiw), and Artist Diploma from Yale University (Peter Frankl), a Master of Music from the Juilliard School (Josef Raieff), and her Bachelor of Music from Seoul National University (Kye Sook Suh). Dr. Kim is currently in her second year as a Senior Artist-in-Residence at Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, NY. She has established the “Young Kim and Skidmore Pianists” concert series with her students and continues her tradition of collaborating with students on the stage.
