Temirzhan Yerzhanov, a pianist and conductor, launched his international career by winning the Gold Medal at the International Robert Schumann Piano Competition in Zwickau, Germany, and now continues performing also as an emerging conductor.

Yerzhanov has toured in Germany, Russia, France, Italy, Switzerland, Czechia, USA, United Kingdom, China, India and Brazil. He has soloed with many orchestras including Moscow Radio Tchaikovsky Symphony, Zwickau Philharmonisches Orchester, Sacramento Philharmonic, Vogtland Philharmonie, and The Symphony Orchestra of India. He has appeared in prestigious venues such as London Wigmore Hall, Berlin Konzerthaus, Leipzig Gewandhaus, Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatory, Dresden Sempergalerie, Paris Salle Gaveau, Moscow Conservatory and St. Petersburg Philharmonic Grand Halls.

Mr. Yerzhanov has been featured on live broadcasts, in studio recordings and talk shows of Deutsche Radio Berlin, Hong Kong Radio, BBC Radio, Radio Free Europe, Radio Russia, and Orpheus Radio. He has recorded CDs of Schumann (RCD label) and Prokofiev works including the world premiere of Classical Symphony (Con Brio Recordings).

A graduate and former faculty member of the Moscow Tchaikovsky Conservatory, Temirzhan Yerzhanov studied piano with Professor Mikhail Voskressensky and collaborative piano with Professor Vazha Chachava. Later he studied conducting with Latvian-American conductor Imant Airea. He was named 'Best Performer of 2007' by San Francisco Classical Voice along with the San Francisco Opera and soprano Angela Gheorghiu, Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra, Mark Morris Dance Group, Artemis Quartet, and Medieval Trio. In his native country he is awarded with Yenbek Sinirgen Qairatkeri, the highest honorary title for national contribution.

Currently, Mr. Yerzhanov resides in California, USA and works worldwide.
