The Philosophy Major Honors Program is an optional program for eligible philosophy majors. In order to be admitted into the program, students must:

1. Complete all of their required lower division major courses.
2. Have a minimum 3.7 Philosophy GPA, and have a 3.5 or better Cumulative GPA.
3. Have arranged to work with a thesis supervisor.

In addition to the existing requirements for the philosophy major degree, Philosophy Honors students will:

1. Complete 10 upper division units (100+) of philosophy courses, with at least 3 of those units as PHIL 190/192, and 1 of those units as PHIL 197.
2. Enroll in PHIL 197 to write a supervised Honors Thesis in a philosophical area of their interest. Thesis must be completed in the semester in which PHIL 197 is taken.
3. Complete and submit an Honors Thesis to the Thesis Supervisor and Director of the Honors Program.
4. Maintain a 3.5 or higher Cumulative GPA, and obtain a B or better (not B-) in each course taken for Honors (no exceptions). Failure to obtain B or better will require the course to be retaken (if below C) or another course to be substituted (with approval).

Upper Division Course Plan* (10 units)

(* to be determined in collaboration with thesis supervisor or major advisor)
