

PHILOSOPHY DEPARTMENT GENERAL EDUCATION COURSES

The university allows unlimited overlap of courses between General Education and the major as well as the minor. For philosophy majors and minors, this means you can take as many of the philosophy courses listed here as you need to in order to meet both your requirements in philosophy as well as your general education and graduation requirements.

Note that many courses that satisfy the following GE areas also satisfy the writing skills and writing intensive categories at the end of this document. Instructors creating syllabi should identify the latter categories as well.
