

Stephanie Conrad is a Northern California Native that Graduated From U.C. Berkeley with a Bachelor of Arts in the Practice of Art in 1989. She has worked in theater for 30 years as a Scenic Painter, Properties Artisan and Set Designer for such companies as American Musical Theater of San Jose, Theater Works, and Music Circus (Broadway Sacramento). Stephanie has made brief forays into film and television, working for both Industrial Light and Magic, CBS, and KTEH in San Jose, as well as painting work for several small independent films. During her 15 years at Sacramento State she has been awarded three Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival awards recognizing her skills as a scenic painter. Stephanie has recently added puppet design and construction to her skillsets, designing and building the 5 headed dragon puppet (TIAMAT), and other monsters for the Fall 2019 CSUS production of She Kills Monsters by Qui Nguyen.