

Suzanne M. Ogilby

Position: Full Professor

Discipline: Accountancy

Final Degree, School: PhD, University of Wisconsin - Madison

Faculty Contact Info

Office: Tahoe Hall 2102

Phone: (916)278-7157

Email: ogilbysm@csus.edu

Biography

Professor Ogilby earned her undergraduate and MSA degree from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. She earned a MBA and a PhD in Accountancy from University of Wisconsin – Madison. Her professional certifications include a Certified Government Financial Manager and a Certified Public Accountant (Illinois), unlicensed.

She taught at Valparaiso University (with a Master’s degree) and the University of Wisconsin – Madison (as a doctoral teaching assistant) before joining the faculty at CSU, Sacramento in 1990. Her principal areas of teaching and research interest include governmental accounting, financial accounting, and accounting pedagogy. Professor Ogilby has published in academic and professional journals.

Areas of Interest

Teaching: Financial Accounting, Governmental & NonProfit Accounting

Research: Governmental accounting, Financial accounting, Accounting Pedagogy

Consulting: Activity-based costing in governmental entities, Citizen Centric Reports

Faculty Scholarship

Tsai, N., Ogilby, S., Xiong, Y. (2016). An Online Learning Development and Improvement Cycle for an Undergraduate Business Computer Literacy Course. International Journal of Innovation in Education. April (2nd Quarter/Spring) 15, 2016

Ogilby, S., Sun, Y., Davis, C., Farrell, R. (2014). What Do Involved Parties Want in a Forensic Accountant? Journal of Forensic Studies in Accounting and Business, 6(1), 85-108. October (4th Quarter/Autumn) 2014

Xiong, Y., Ogilby, S. (2014). Experimental Investigation of the Effects of Cognitive Elaboration on Accounting Learning Outcomes. Journal of Education and Learning, 3(4). December 2014

Ogilby, S. M., Pforsich, H., Johnstone, T. (2016). Activity-Based Costing/Management - Lessons from a Public Service Organization. Journal of Government Financial Management(Winter 2016). December 2016

Ogilby, S. M., Farrell, R. R. (2015). The Universe of Ethics: The Buck Stops With You! Journal of Government Financial Management(Winter 2015), 26-31. December 2015