Zahra Aivazpour

Zahra Aivazpour is an Assistant Professor in the Department of ISBA at the College of Business, Sacramento State University. She is a former professor at Cal Poly, SLO. With a Ph.D. in Information Systems & Cybersecurity from the University of Texas, San Antonio, her research has focused on areas such as cyberbullying, data breaches, and information privacy. Recently, she has been exploring data analytics, cybersecurity, social media analysis, and fake news.

She has taught various courses, including IT Infrastructure & Security Management, Management Information Systems, and Database Management for Information Systems. Apart from her teaching responsibilities, she has actively contributed to the Students Affairs Committee, the DEI Committee, and the Cybersecurity Curriculum Development task force, showcasing her commitment to fostering an inclusive and supportive academic environment. Professor Aivazpour holds several certifications, notably the Google Data Analytics Professional Certificate, the AWS Academic Cloud Foundation, and ACUE, which she integrates into both her teaching methods and research. She has been an active member of the Association for Information Systems and regularly serves as a reviewer for IS journals and conferences in the field.

Her work has been featured in publications such as the Database for Advances in Information Systems, AIS Transactions on Replication Research, and conferences including ICIS, HICSS, and AMCIS.