

GENDER EQUITY STUDIES

MA IN EDUCATION, EQUITY AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

ABOUT

The MA in Education, Equity, and Social Justice, Gender Equity Program at Sacramento State University explores theoretical and pedagogical issues related to gender, ethnicity, race, and socioeconomic status and how these impact educational, community, and workplace settings. The program prepares students to serve as 'change agents' to promote gender equity, anti-racism, and inclusion in the public schools and other educational venues.

Learn more online: <https://www.csus.edu/college/education/masters-programs/>

APPLICATION DEADLINE

01 MARCH 2026

For Fall 2026 Semester

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- A minimum 2.5 GPA
- Resume
- Personal Statement
- Writing Sample
- Interview

PROGRAM CURRICULUM

30 units (10 courses) to complete the M.A.

A. Required Core Courses (16 units)

- (3) EDTE 251 Education for a Democratic, Pluralistic Society
- (4) EDBM 250 Education Research
- (3) EDGR 210 Contemporary Issues in Education: Curriculum and Social Emotional Well-Being of Students
- (3) EDTE 227 Seminar in Curriculum and Instruction, K-12
- (3) EDTE 268 Theory and Practice of Gender Issues and Race

B. Gender Equity Studies Concentration Required Courses (14 Units)

- (3) EDUC 165 Sex Role Stereotyping in American Education
- (3) EDTE 266 Gender Constructs in Education
- (3) EDTE 290 Seminar: Preparation of Master's Thesis/Project
- (2) EDTE 506 Culminating Experience: Gender Equity Studies in Education

C. Elective Course (3 Units)

3 units of elective coursework selected in consultation with the Program Coordinator.

QUESTIONS? CONTACT THE PROGRAM COORDINATORS

Dr. Lorena Camargo Gonzalez
L.camargogonzalez@csus.edu

Dr. Riana Pella
R.pella@csus.edu