

SACRAMENTO STATE
Redefine the Possible

Information Sessions: Special Education Programs Fall 2023 cohorts

- In-person* November 9, 2022, 5-7pm
- Virtual Nov. 16, 2022, 3:30-4:30pm
- Virtual December 12, 2022, 7-8pm
- Virtual February 1, 2023, 3-4pm

All info sessions are followed by a 30-minute info session about our NEW!!! Sac Metro Special Education Teacher Residency (SMSTR) scholarship program

*Location: Sac State's Eureka Hall 329

RSVP to attend and ask your questions live. All registered attendants receive access to the zoom link and recording.

RSVP: events.csus.edu/csus-college-of-education

Interested in working with children and youth with disabilities?

Then learn what it's like to be an education specialist and chat with the program coordinators of our ECSE-Added Authorization and 5 Blended Education Specialist teaching credential with Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT-SPED) programs

1. Early Childhood Special Education (ECSE) (distance program)
2. ECSE-Added Authorization for current Education Specialists
3. Education Specialist Mild to Moderate Support Needs (MMSN)
4. Dual Education Specialist MMSN & Multiple Subject credential
5. Education Specialist Extensive Support Needs (ESN)
6. Dual Education Specialist ESN & Multiple Subject credential

Applications due March 1

For more information about our programs:

www.csus.edu/college/education/teaching-credentials/

Questions about the application process, pre-requisites, test-prep, or your transcripts? Attend an applications info session or contact:

- Ashley Ciraulo-Stuart, Student Success Center (application process & undergraduate pathways to teaching), aciraulo@csus.edu, 916.278.6403
- Karina Figueroa-Ramirez, Educational Equity Program (support services & Bilingual Authorization), figueroaramirez@csus.edu