

California State University, Sacramento
College of Education – Teaching Credentials

Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) Training Requirement

To qualify for a preliminary credential, the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) requires that you provide evidence of completion of CPR training that includes infant, child and adult skills. Verification of current CPR training must be submitted to the Teaching Credentials Department before you finish the credential program.

Training Courses that the CTC accepts:

American Heart Association (AHA)

BLS course "B" (Adult and Pediatric Heartsaver)

BLS course "C" (Basic Life Support for Healthcare Providers)

American Red Cross

Community CPR

Community First Aid and Safety Adult CPR plus Infant and Child CPR CPR for the Professional Rescuer

National Safety Council

Adult CPR plus Infant/Child CPR

Medic First Aid

Basic or Pediatric Plus

Save-A-Heart

Adult, Child, Infant, Two-Person CPR Training

Critical Moments

Childcare Provider CPR & First Aid (covers infant, child, & adult)

EMS Safety Services

CPR Adult Guidelines & Pediatric

Emergency First Response

Primary, Secondary, & Care for Children

American Health Care Academy

Adult, Child, Infant CPR & AED First Aid

American Safety & Health Institute

CPR Pro, CPR Training Completion Card for Healthcare Professionals

*Online CPR training is acceptable as long as it covers infant, child, & adult skills AND is equivalent to the American Red Cross "Level B" course.