PROGRAM OVERVIEW

DESCRIPTION

The Mild to Moderate Support Needs (MMSN) Credential authorizes the holder to provide instruction and special education support as well as conduct educational assessments related to student's access to the academic core curriculum. The MMSN program is a hybrid program with evening courses and in-person fieldwork.

Upon successful recommendation of Teaching Credential, candidates will have the option to complete an additional sequence of five Master of Arts in Special Education Teaching (MASET) courses. Candidates will critically examine sociocultural and sociopolitical contexts in education, apply these analyses to develop and implement standards-based, inclusive curricula for diverse learners, and complete a Teacher Action Research Project using practice-based methods. A separate application is required to begin the MASET program.
