ACEC California Scholarship Eligibility
for the 2024 - 2025 Academic Year
The deadline for application submissions is January 26, 2024

To qualify as an applicant for the ACEC California Scholarship Program, a student must:

1. Be entering their junior, senior, fifth or master's degree year in the Fall of 2024. Students graduating in December 2023 are not eligible.

2. Be enrolled as follows:

   a. Upper division undergraduate students must be enrolled full-time and working toward a degree in an engineering or land-surveying curriculum approved by the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology (ABET).

   b. Master's degree students must be enrolled at least half time, and either be in an ABET-accredited Master of Science (MS) engineering program or have a Bachelor of Science (BS) degree from an ABET-accredited engineering program.

3. Meet the following minimum grade point average requirements:

   a. For ACEC California's State Competition: Applicants must have a minimum grade point average of 3.2 in completed engineering and land surveying courses and a minimum overall grade point average of 3.0 on a scale of 4.0.

4. Be interested in the possibility of pursuing a career in consulting engineering or land surveying.

5. Citizenship: You do not have to be a U.S. citizen to be eligible for an ACEC California scholarship. However, U.S. citizenship is required for some chapter scholarships and all ACEC National scholarships.

Additional conditions:

- Payment of the award will be made at the start of the 2024 fall semester, after submitting proof of enrollment.

- No student may receive more than two awards from ACEC California's scholarship fund. Students who have previously received one award must reapply to be eligible for a second award.

- All recipients must remain full-time students in good standing at a California university or college during the year in which the award is received.

- Any eligible students may also be entered in the local chapter and national scholarship programs.

To qualify as an applicant for the ACEC California Scholarship Program, a student must provide the following:

1. Complete the on-line application available at www.acec-ca.org/scholarshipapp

2. Official transcripts which must be submitted by the university via standard mail or emailed to Janae Breslin through the electronic transcript process. Official Transcripts must include Fall Semester 2023 or Fall Quarter 2023 grades.

3. Completed Recommendation Form, sent through the student's online portal.
