

Center for Health Practice, Policy & Research

In collaboration with campus and community partners, the Center fosters health and social equity through interprofessional service, education, policy, and research.

Clinical Services

- Maryjane Reese Language, Speech and Hearing Center
- 5 Pro bono Physical Therapy Clinics

Interprofessional Collaborations

- Stroke Recovery and Resource Center
- Cardiac Wellness Program

Think Tank

Health collaborative to advance thinking about critical & persistent public health issues

Vision

CHPPR envisions Northern California as a model network of healthy, equitable, and connected communities.

Annual Conference

Public health agencies, CBOs, and academic institutions come together to present contemporary best practices in public health

Community Outreach

Partnering with communities for a healthy future

Research

Funding research that informs health practice and policy