

Final Strategic Plan January 2017:

STRATEGIC PLAN

Mission

The Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders trains highly competent professionals in the fields of speech-language pathology and audiology by providing a rigorous scientific background and diverse clinical experiences while fostering a dedication to lifelong learning and community service.

Vision

The Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders will be widely recognized as a leader in the innovative education of speech-language pathologists and audiologists

Values

Student Success
Community Engagement and Service
Well-Being
Diversity
Inclusion and Access
Leadership
Professional Ethics
Excellence in Teaching, Service, and Scholarship
Social Responsibility
Collaboration and Interprofessional Education
Innovation
Global Engagement

Strategic Goals

Encourage innovative teaching
Provide opportunities for research, scholarly and creative activities
Enhance community partnerships to promote student success
Provide sequenced, integrated academic and clinical training

Working Document 2014-15, 2015-16, and 2016-17:

Mission:

Original:

Our mission is to train competent professionals in speech, language pathology and audiology with an appropriate scientific background, clinical skill and an appreciation for the need to continue learning beyond formal academic training.

Rewrite:

The Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders trains highly competent professionals in the fields of speech-language pathology and audiology by providing a rigorous scientific background and diverse clinical experiences while fostering a dedication to lifelong learning and community service.

Vision:

The Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders will be recognized as a leader in the innovative education of speech-language pathologists and audiologists

Strategic Goals

Original:

- Encourage innovative teaching, research opportunities, and scholarly activities
- Enhance community partnerships
- Provide quality academic and clinical training
- Support student success

Rewrite:

- 1. Encourage innovative teaching
- 2. Provide opportunities for research, scholarly and creative activities
- 3. Enhance community partnerships to promote student success
- 4. Provide sequenced, integrated academic and clinical training

Sacramento State's Strategic Goals, 2014-2020

1. Enhance student learning and success Y
2. Foster innovative teaching, scholarship, and research Y
3. Commit to engaging the community by building enduring partnerships that strengthen and enrich the region Y
4. Excel as a place to learn, work, live, and visit NA
5. Engage students in a comprehensive university experience NA
6. Promote a strong University identity