

Dear _____,

Congratulations on your offer of admission to the Doctor of Audiology (Au.D.) program at California State University, Sacramento. By now, you should have received and responded to the official acceptance correspondence from the Office of Graduate Studies. If you have not received this notice, please contact me immediately.

Please be aware that although you have been recommended for admission to the Au.D. cohort of 2020-2021, you will not be enrolled in courses until an accreditation decision has been made by the Council on Academic Accreditation in July 2020. Pending approval, you will receive a plan of study detailing the didactic and clinical coursework for the 11-semester program.

Each student has been assigned an advisor, who will contact you as the start of the semester approaches. Your advisor is _____.

The Au.D. student orientation will be held on _____, 2020, at _____am/pm. This orientation is mandatory for incoming Au.D. students. More information about the orientation will be sent in the late Summer.

Congratulations, and welcome to the Au.D. program at Sacramento State.
