GRADUATE LEARNER OUTCOMES

Mastery of each student-learning outcome listed below is indicated by a grade of B or better on each component of the corresponding measures listed in the table. Students are required to track their progress towards meeting each learning outcome and must make an appointment with the instructor for any grade equal to or less than a B. The instructor will suggest strategies to help you establish competence and knowledge in these areas.

Students should track their progress towards meeting each learning outcome by listing their grades on the table below over the course of the semester.

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Summarize legal and ethical issues encountered by audiologists in professional, academic, clinical, and research settings
2. Identify resources for national associations' codes of ethics and guidelines
3. Describe reporting procedures for abuse and neglect
4. Discuss ethical dilemmas for various scenarios

COURSE/CLASS POLICIES

Course Format

Seminar

Class Preparation:

All required readings are for the date listed in the course schedule, not the following class period. Students are responsible for all assigned readings, whether discussed in class or not.

Class Participation:

Students are expected to actively participate in class discussions and are required to have read the assigned material prior to class meetings.

Class Attendance:

Classroom attendance is necessary for this course. No more than three unexcused absences are allowed. Students are expected to arrive on time as class begins at X:XX am/pm.

Class Assignments

Course grades will be based on quizzes, ethical dilemmas activity, and graded class activities.

Ethical Dilemmas Activity

Students will be presented with various mock dilemmas in clinical and academic settings. Working in small groups, students will identify any legal or ethical issues, propose solutions and next steps, and then present their case to the class.

Quizzes

Quizzes will be administered in class on the date listed in the course schedule.

Commitment to Integrity

As a student in this course (and at this university) you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning and participation in this class and also integrity in your behavior in and out of the classroom.
