Course Accessibility

Sacramento State is committed to ensuring an accessible learning environment where course or instructional content are usable by all students and faculty. If you believe that you require disability-related academic adjustments for this class (including pregnancy-related disabilities), please immediately contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD) to discuss eligibility. A current accommodation letter from SSWD is required before any modifications, above and beyond what is otherwise available for all other students in this class will be provided. Please be advised that disability-related academic adjustments are not retroactive. SSWD is located on the first floor of Lassen Hall 1008. Phone is 916-278-6955 and e-mail is sswd@csus.edu. For a complete listing of services and current business hours visit <https://www.csus.edu/student-affairs/centers-programs/services-students-disabilities/>

Textbooks

Ukrainetz, T.A. (2024) School-age language intervention: Evidence-based practices (2nd ed). Pro-Ed.

Copy book with case studies. We will be going over case studies during most class times. The copy book with the case studies is available through the Hornet bookstore. Please start bringing it to class each day beginning 9/10/26.

Online Resources

This fall, I'll use Canvas for announcements, exams, and posting your grades. I'll use my website for posting the syllabus and all PowerPoints and study guides. Guest speakers will present synchronously via Canvas/Zoom or in person.

Please remember that some note taking is required during class

Place of Course in Program:

The focus of this 3-unit graduate seminar is the advanced study of child language impairment or Developmental Language Disorder (DLD)). In this seminar, we will discuss
