CSAD 242B. Methods: Language Disorders II. 1 Unit
Prerequisite(s): CSAD 223, CSAD 242A; instructor permission.
Corequisite(s): CSAD 243B.
Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring
Techniques and materials for assessing and treating children with disordered language secondary to a myriad of contributing factors including delayed development, neurological problems and various genetic conditions. Discussion of cases in the current caseload.

Place of Course in Program

The purpose of this 1-unit graduate seminar is to introduce student clinicians to techniques and materials for assessing and treating children with disordered language secondary to a myriad of contributing factors including delayed development, neurological problems and various genetic conditions. Discussion of cases in the current caseload will inform classroom discussion.

Course Learning Outcomes:

Mastery of each student-learning outcome listed below is indicated by a grade of B or better on each component of the corresponding measures listed in the table. Students are required to track their progress towards meeting each learning outcome and must make an appointment with the instructor for any grade equal to or less than a B. The instructor will suggest strategies to help you establish competence and knowledge in these areas.

Students should track their progress towards meeting each learning outcome by listing their grades on the table below over the course of the semester.

CSAD 242B SPECIFIC STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate ability to use appropriate tools and techniques in assessing receptive/expressive oral and written language skills in children with language disorders.
2. Demonstrate ability in effectively treating oral-written language disorders in children.
3. Write professional reports with diagnostic statements, goals and objectives.
4. Practice measuring and reporting treatment outcomes.
5. Integrate clinical goals and objectives with the client’s functional daily living and with academic expectations.
6. Apply principles for effectively working with clients’ family members or caregivers in carryover of clinical goals.
7. Facilitate discussions with other clinicians through case presentations.

Textbooks and Materials:

Online Resources:
Please review the course module, which can be found on Canvas, for syllabi and tentative course schedule, report templates, materials for course activities, posted lecture notes, etc.

Course Requirements/Components:

1. Class attendance and participation: Attend and interact as described in the General Policies section of this syllabus. This participation is defined as your team participation. Performance here is demonstrated by offering constructive observations and feedback regarding the cases of your colleagues as well as comments on assigned readings. Bottom line: If you don’t follow the attendance policy and participate in this methods class you won’t get an “A” grade in the course.

2. Turn in one “clinical” goal and the same goal written to the Common Core Standards

3. Turn in four hard copy “Reflection-on-Action” reports, using the given template, reflecting on two therapy sessions for each client

4. Case Presentations: Present a video of one client to the class for discussion. You must have selected a particular segment of video that demonstrates some teaching technique that you will show in video and demonstrate to the class. Don’t just show a part of video you like because the client had a “good day.” We want to see the real thing—even if it didn’t work as well as you would have hoped. In these cases, we can problem solve how to modify the methods/materials you present. You will actually be teaching your fellow clinicians a therapy technique, so be prepared to show your video, then instruct. Post a handout with client diagnosis, age, and goal the activity targets to a group email sent to your peers. The handout must include specific instructions and pointers to help your classmates should they choose to adopt your methodology and it must be emailed to the group and your instructor prior to your class presentation. NOTE: A sample handout has been posted to Canvas. Please review it and follow it as a guide. Be sure to bring any necessary materials from the supply room as appropriate to demonstrate on the day of your presentation. If needed, we will break into teams of two and practice the therapy technique you have taught.

5. Required Reading and four (4) quizzes

Grading Policy:

A total of 500 points are possible. Your final grade will be calculated as a % of points out of 500 points. Points possible are assigned as follows:

Course letter grades are assigned according to the following scores:
Course Policies/Procedures:

Presentations: Late presentations will drop your FINAL grade one letter grade per week late.

Attendance. This course involves verbal interaction among the students and the instructor. You cannot really “get” what was covered in class via classmates’ notes. A modified Socratic method will be employed, whereby students will be called upon randomly to contribute to classroom discussions. Because of this, class attendance is required. Roll will be taken for the entire group each day and roll will be taken on an individual basis via this Socratic method: If you are not in class or not present when your name is selected for discussion, you will be considered absent. You must report absences to Dr. Pieretti via email prior to class meetings. Excused absences will be granted for documented emergencies or conflicts. You must provide written documentation of the emergency or conflict to the instructor. All other absences will be considered unexcused. Two or more (2) unexcused absences will result in your final grade dropping one letter grade via reduction of the 100 participation points. Working as a Speech-Language Pathologist requires being present, on time, and prepared. Practicing those skills now will prepare you for what this career will be like. If you do need to miss a class, you are responsible for all materials covered in your absence. This means you must get any materials handed out during your missed session from a classmate, not the instructor.

Class meetings and participation: Lecture + discussion + observation format will be followed. Because this is a seminar, active listening, participation, and problem solving is expected. For example when you are listening to another student present his/her ideas, you should take notes and offer suggestions. Comments such as “I agree” or “great idea,” are okay. Substantive participation (e.g., comments that help advance the discussion, or that help develop a new angle on a problem) is considered to be far more meaningful participation. Speech-Language Pathology is a profession in which you need to actively problem solve at all times.

Additional Information

Commitment to Integrity:
As a student in this course (and at this university) you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning and participation in this class and also integrity in your behavior in and out of the classroom.

Sac State’s Academic Honesty Policy & Procedures:
“The principles of truth and honesty are recognized as fundamental to a community of scholars and teachers. California State University, Sacramento expects that both faculty and students will honor these principles, and in so doing, will protect the integrity of academic work and student grades.” Read more about Sac State’s Academic Honesty Policy & Procedures at the following website: http://www.csus.edu/umanual/student/stu-0100.htm

Definitions: At Sac State, “cheating is the act of obtaining or attempting to obtain credit for academic work through the use of any dishonest, deceptive, or fraudulent means.” Plagiarism is a form of cheating. At Sac State, “plagiarism is the use of distinctive ideas or works belonging to another person without providing adequate acknowledgement of that person’s contribution.” Source: Sacramento State University Library Note: Any form of academic dishonesty, including cheating and plagiarism, may be reported to the office of student affairs.

Understand When You May Drop This Course:
It is the student’s responsibility to understand when he/she need to consider disenrolling from a course. Prefer to the Sac State Course Schedule for dates and deadlines for registration. After this period, a serious and compelling reason is required to drop from the course. Serious and compelling reasons include: (a) documented and significant change in work hours, leaving student unable to attend class, or (b) documented and severe physical/mental illness/injury to the student or student’s family. Under emergency/special circumstances, students may petition for an incomplete grade. An incomplete will only be assigned if there is a compelling extenuating circumstance. All incomplete course assignments must be completed by the department’s policy.

Equal Access:
California State University-Sacramento, Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders, seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. If you have a documented disability and verification from the Office of Services to Students with Disabilities (SSWD), and wish to discuss academic accommodations, please contact your instructor as soon as possible. It is the student’s responsibility to provide documentation of disability to SSWD and meet with a SSWD counselor to request special accommodation before classes start. Sacramento State Services to Students with Disabilities (SSWD) offers a wide range of support services and accommodations for students in order to ensure students with disabilities have equal access and opportunity to pursue their educational goals. Working collaboratively with students, faculty, staff and administrators, SSWD provides consultation and serves as the information resource on disability related issues to the campus community. SSWD is located in Lassen Hall 1008 and can be contacted by phone at (916) 278-6955 (Voice) or (916) 278-7239 (TDD only) or via email at sswd@csus.edu.
